

STATE OF WASHINGTON
DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE
ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM

TO: Fish and Wildlife Officer Applicants

FROM: Richard Mann, Lieutenant

SUBJECT: FISH AND WILDLIFE OFFICER APPLICATION AND STUDY MATERIALS

Enclosed are the Personal History and Background Questionnaire, a Washington State job application, and an informational flyer explaining the hiring process. The application and questionnaire along with required documents must be completed and returned by 5:00 pm on the date specified in the Position Announcement.

Materials are available on line to help you prepare for the written examination and the Physical Ability Test for the Fish and Wildlife Officer position. Full copies of the Washington Big Game, Small Game and Waterfowl, Turkey, Trapping, and Fishing regulations are available online at www.wa.gov/wdfw/. You may also obtain a current copy at any license dealer, regional office or request copies be mailed to you. Basic boating information is available through Washington State Parks at www.boat-ed.com/wa/handbook/. A basic understanding of Washington's wildlife, township, range and section mapping, legal terminology, types of arrests, evidence handling, and the Federal Boldt and Rafeedie court decisions will also be helpful.

Physical ability testing information is available through the Criminal Justice Training Commission website at www.cjtc.state.wa.us/blea/pat2003.pdf.

If you have any questions you can contact me at 360-902-2923. Good Luck!

Careers in Fish and Wildlife Law Enforcement

Washington Department of

Fish and Wildlife

Enforcement Program

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Fish and Wildlife Officers are Certified Peace Officers commissioned to primarily enforce the Fish and Wildlife Code, WDFW regulations, as well as forest products, boating law and all laws of the State. Officers execute and serve all criminal processes related to enforcement activities, safeguard departmental lands and equipment, present programs to the public, and provide assistance to other law enforcement agencies within their assigned areas. They also maintain contact with landowners, resource users, and the general public.

Fish and Wildlife Officers respond to public safety concerns as bear and cougar numbers rise in response to restricted hunting opportunity while human populations continue to encroach on shrinking wildlife habitat. Public concerns with nuisance wildlife and crop damage associated with deer and elk are also handled by Fish and Wildlife Officers statewide.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- ❖ AGE: Applicant must be 21 prior to being employed
- ❖ HEALTH: Applicant must be able to physically perform the duties of a Fish and Wildlife Officer, including passing the Physical Ability Test required for entry into the Academy. A successful applicant must also pass a medical examination and a psychological assessment.
- ❖ EDUCATION / EXPERIENCE: A Bachelors degree in a Natural Resource Science, Criminal Justice or closely related field;
- OR -

A two-year college degree, and either two years of paid, full-time fish or wildlife experience, or two years of paid, full-time fully commissioned law enforcement experience that includes successful completion of the Criminal Justice Training Commission Basic Law Enforcement Academy or its equivalent.

- ❖ CHARACTER: Applicant must be trustworthy, of high moral character and possess a background free of unfavorable incidents. Applicants must submit a completed AWDFW Personal History and Background Questionnaire along with a AWaiver and Authority for Release of Information with their application. Failure to successfully complete any of the testing process, felony convictions, illegal drug usage in the past 3 years, excessive drug usage in the past 10 years, dishonesty or failure to disclose during the process may disqualify a candidate. Applicants are required to submit to and pass a polygraph examination.
- ❖ STATION ASSIGNMENT: Applicants must be willing to accept station assignment anywhere in the state of Washington. While applicant desires are considered, assignments will be made in the best interest of the Department.

- ❖ WORK SCHEDULE: Officers put in 171 hours each 28 day work period, much of it self scheduled, and may be expected to work holidays. Detachments coordinate work schedules to address upcoming seasons and enforcement issues. Night and weekend work is not uncommon, especially during peak activity periods.
- ❖ DRESS CODE: Fish and Wildlife Officers are required to wear a prescribed uniform and adhere to established dress and grooming standards.
- ❖ RESIDENCE: Officers are required to live within a prescribed area, usually within 10 -15 miles of their assigned duty station.

TESTING PROCESS

The FWO register currently opens twice annually for a 4-6 week period. Applications are accepted on a statewide basis during this time to maintain a register of qualified candidates to fill vacancies as they occur. Qualified applicants are referred for further testing.

Applicants are scheduled for Physical Ability Testing which consists of a 300 Meter Run, maximum Push-Ups, one minute Sit-Ups and a 1.5 Mile Run/Walk. Minimum performance levels for each test must be met as well as a minimum passing score for the entire test battery. On successful completion, the candidate is allowed into the written examination.

The written test evaluates basic knowledge in natural resources, regulations, maps, judgement, observational and organizational skills. Studying the general information found in the hunting and fishing pamphlets will help applicants prepare for this test. Applicants with passing scores are moved to the second phase of testing.

The second phase of testing consists of the oral examination, fingerprinting, a pre-polygraph interview and psychological test batteries. This part of the process is conducted on one day in Olympia, WA. The Oral Exam consists of a writing exercise, pre-exposed scenario questions with an answer presented to a test panel, and impromptu scenario questions from a panel. Each portion is scored based on set criteria and an overall score is recorded.

The results of the written and oral examination are then combined and candidates are placed on a ranked register. The Enforcement Program uses this register to obtain candidate names for further testing. Candidates referred from the register complete the remainder of the process. This includes a complete background investigation, polygraph, psychological and medical examination, and a structured interview. The best qualified candidates are offered employment based on program needs and priorities.

NEW OFFICER TRAINING

Once hired, officers must successfully complete the Basic Law Enforcement Academy (BLEA) and the Enforcement Program in-house training which covers Departmental policies, regulations, forms, fish and wildlife identification and other areas of basic knowledge prior to beginning field work.

On completion of the BLEA and WDFW in-house training, new Fish and Wildlife Officers are assigned to the Field Training Program. Under the guidance of a Field Training Officer (FTO), they progress through a structured program designed to prepare and provide the new officer with the basic skills and knowledge needed to integrate classroom knowledge with field performance as a Fish and Wildlife Officer.

SALARY and BENEFITS

(as of 07/01/03)

Career advancement is based on a combination of longevity, training and job knowledge and performance.

Fish and Wildlife Officer 1 (1yr.) $3291 - 4216 mo.

Fish and Wildlife Officer 2 (4yrs) $3637 - 4653 mo.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Potential applicants can obtain information from the Washington State Department of Personnel or the Department of Fish and Wildlife. Basic job duties and requirements are available on Department of Personnel web page, www.hr.dop.wa.gov
Interested persons should begin to inquire about register openings in early January and July and may call (360) 902-2932 during open periods to request an application packet. The complete application packet must be returned to the WDFW Personnel office by the deadline stated in the announcement. Numerous applications are rejected each open period because they are received late or are incomplete.

Specific questions can be directed to the WDFW Enforcement Program c/o Lt. Mann (360) 902-2923 mannrpm@dfw.wa.gov or to the WDFW Personnel section at (360) 902-2276.

The State of Washington is an equal opportunity employer. Persons with disability who need assistance in the application or testing process, or those needing this announcement in an alternative format, may call (360) 664-1960 or TDD (360) 753 -4107.

STATE OF WASHINGTON
DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE
ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE FISH AND WILDLIFE OFFICER APPLICANT

The information you provide in this Personal History and Background Questionnaire will be used in the investigation into your background to assist in determining your suitability for the position of Fish and Wildlife Officer. Please fill out the questionnaire completely and accurately. Keep in mind that:

1. the completion of the form is mandatory;
2. all statements are subject to verification; deliberate inaccuracies or incomplete information or statements may bar or remove you from consideration for employment; and,
3. all time periods in your background must be accounted for.

It is to your advantage to respond openly and truthfully. A negative factor in your background is not in itself grounds for disqualification. It will be evaluated in terms of the circumstances and facts, and its degree of relevance to the responsibilities of a Fish and Wildlife Officer. The investigator will inquire into the facts surrounding such an occurrence and an evaluation will then be made of the relevance of these facts to the requirements of the position of Fish and Wildlife Officer. The following areas have previously caused problems for applicants and merit special attention:

1. If you did something five (5) times, do not indicate four (4) times, or some other number.
2. When asked if you have ever used marijuana, cocaine or other illicit drugs, do not say "No," rationalizing that you only tried it once, didn't do it often, used only a small amount, or that it had no affect on you.
3. When asked if you have ever stolen anything, do not reply "No" rationalizing that you just borrowed it and will return it, the item had no value, it was common practice among coworkers, it was unintentional or the person didn't really care that you took it.
4. When asked to write down all your jobs within the past seven (7) years do not omit any, rationalizing it was only part time, you didn't work there that long, the employer wouldn't give you a good recommendation, or that it is not related to this job.

Please print clearly in ink or type your responses to this questionnaire. If a question does not apply to you, write N/A (not applicable) in the space provided for your answer. If you need more space to respond to a question, use a separate sheet of paper and identify the additional information by question number.

A WORD ABOUT THE POLYGRAPH TEST

Many people facing the prospect of taking a polygraph examination are filled with apprehension and uncertainty about the questions to be asked during this examination. In an effort to lessen any anxiety you may be experiencing concerning this test, allow us to explain what is involved in this particular examination.

The Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife is comprised of a highly trained and trusted group of employees. During the course of their employment they routinely come in contact with both information of a very confidential nature and with cases and evidence which could place them in a potentially compromising position.

Our Department's pre-employment background investigation process is designed to assist us in the hiring of prospective Department members who will adhere to and uphold all laws and serve the public in an ethical, courteous, impartial, and professional manner while respecting the rights and dignity of all persons. As the law enforcement agency, the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife strives to maintain officer safety and provide a safe, confidential working environment for all employees.

The polygraph test has been an effective tool to assist our agency in the screening of prospective employment candidates. The test, comprised of 10-15 questions, is used as an aid in verifying the responses given to an 86-question pretest questionnaire concerning the following issues: driving, employment history, military service, education, abuse of alcohol or drugs, sex crimes, and honesty. In no way are these questions intended to embarrass the prospective employee or go into areas not directly relevant to employment with the Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife.

Prior to the administration of the polygraph, a review will be made with you of the specific questions to be asked. At the conclusion of the examination, the results will be reviewed with you, and you will be provided an opportunity to explain any answers which indicates a deceptive response.

We are attempting to identify those individuals who possess those qualities which will most likely ensure their success with our agency.

My Commission Expires: _____
